

THE INAUGURAL INTERLINGUAL TRANSLATION & INTERPRETATION (IITI) WORKSHOP SERIES 2020-2021 @ MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Toward Becoming a Professional Translator & Interpreter in Global Contexts

MSU has organized a series of three workshops in FS20 and a MSU Faculty Roundtable in SS21 on the translation & interpreting field. Each workshop includes a language neutral section and a section with a target language (Japanese, French, or Spanish). All are welcome to attend the language neutral portion of each workshop. Each workshop will be three hours long (1.5 hours for non-language specific audiences and 1.5 hours for target language audiences). The non-language specific workshop will be organized around four key issues: (1) Navigating the paths to becoming a professional; (2) Scoping the field and its future; (3) Learning strategies and methodologies for translation and interpretation; and (4) Identifying resources for the profession. The language specific workshop will be a hands-on workshop focusing mainly on strategies and methodologies for translation and interpretation.

Workshop Series Overview

Workshop I with Dr. Lili Selden (Oct. 2, 2020): (Japanese)
