Applications open for the French and Francophone Studies Program at MSU

Do you want to turn your love for the French language and Francophone cultures into a rewarding career? Are you interested in exploring the diversity of the French speaking world from a variety of perspectives?

Apply to an advanced degree program in Francophone Studies at MSU

GO TO RCS.MSU.EDU/FRENCH/ADMISSIONS/ FOR MORE INFORMATION
Why study with us?

Graduate programs are funded with full tuition waiver and a generous stipend for students.

1. Fully paid two-month summer internship or year-long teaching internship in Tours, France available.

Choose between the Interdisciplinary Studies concentration and the Literary and Cultural Studies concentration.

2. Diverse community of learning.

3. Faculty with a wide range of academic and cultural interests.

For more information:
Contact Professor Valentina Denzel (vdenzel@msu.edu)